SUPPORT/

Dominion Modern has functioned without government assistance since 2003. We need your help in achieving two goals—a permanent home and financing our programming. Please help us continue the work of archiving Canadian design history. Dominion Modern is a registered non-profit organisation. Your donation receives a charitable receipt.

Cheques should be made out to DOMINION MODERN

Revenue Canada now offers a new way to donate to charities. You can donate securities to our BMO Nesbitt Burns account. Canadians receive preferential tax treatment in donating securities that have appreciated in value. This is due to recent tax legislation that eliminates capital gains tax on such securities.

Montréal Métro Book and Exhibition/

Dominion Modern launches Montréal Métro, its ambitious book and exhibition in September 2011

Montréal Métro by John Martins-Manteiga
460 page, colour catalogue

The book is part of the Société de transport de Montréal (STM) celebrations for the 150th anniversary of public transit in Montréal.
